Los Angeles, Cal.

Dear Sir:

Is it still possible to obtain your book of "Spanish Songs of Old California"?
And what is the price?

I should like both the "Spanish Songs," and the new one, "Flowers of our Lost Romance". I shall send you my order as soon as I know how much money to send. What about postage?

Awaiting your reply, I am

Very truly yours,

Ruby J. Scott

Miss Ruby T. Scott, 620 Virginia St.,
Toledo, Ohio.

My dear Miss Scott:

The "Spanish Songs of Old California" are now selling in the Fifth Thousand, and I can supply any order. The price is $1.50.

The title of the book is as above; the name "Flowers of our Lost Romance" being simply descriptive of the nature of these folk songs saved from the Romantic Past of California.

However, I hope to issue very soon the Second Book of the Songs.

Postage is paid at the price of $1.50.

Yours very truly,

two copies of the "Spanish Songs of Old California". Please send one copy to

Miss Mary M. Galt
620 Virginia Street
Toledo, Ohio

and one copy to

Miss Ruby J. Scott
Choussman, Illinois

I understand that the price includes postage.

Very truly yours,

Ruby J. Scott.
